

CORPORATE SUSTAINABILITY POLICY

At Royalton Luxury Resorts (RLR) we are committed to Sustainable Development through the operation of our hotels and resorts, across each of the destinations where we operate, in a responsible manner and in accordance with the following principles:

- Ensure hotels and resorts are compliant with applicable environmental legislation and regulations in each country we operate.
- Respect and conserve the environment through the implementation of best environmental practices and protection of the local flora and fauna.
- Ensure the correct management and final disposal of waste through recycling and reuse.
- Promote conservation activities such as beach cleanups, mangrove cleanups and protection of wildlife (where applicable).
- Implement awareness campaigns to ensure the protection of resources through staff training.
- Preserve national and cultural identity through respect for traditions, strengthening the sense of national pride and sharing its value abroad.
- Respect the local community by fostering a support system and building relationships to assist them as much as possible.
- Work continuously to advance RLR's internal management and sustainable initiatives to improve environmental performance.
- Promote the involvement of stakeholders such as employees, guests, suppliers and suppliers in RLR's sustainable culture, communicating the best practices implemented.

At Royalton Luxury Resorts we are aware that creating and maintaining a sustainable culture involves an evolving improvement process to establish our long-term commitment.
